

18th IAFPA Aircraft Rescue & Firefighting Conference 2018

Jointly organised with the Singapore Aviation Academy
9 – 11 May 2018

The International Aviation Fire Protection Association (IAFPA) Conference is an annual event that serves as a nexus for knowledge and experience sharing for key personnel in the international Aircraft Rescue and Firefighting (ARFF) community. It serves as a platform for global aviation fire chiefs, executives and industry leaders to share best practices and formulate strategies to manage the challenges posed by the fast-changing aviation landscape.

This year's theme of "Strengthening Aviation Safety Standards" provides a holistic review of standard-setting in ARFF training, aircraft and terminal incident management, case studies and best practices in airport emergencies. The World Civil Aviation Fire Chiefs meeting, together with a fire-fighting foam workshop, will be held in conjunction with the conference.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Participate in interactive panel discussions on safety standards and developments with industry experts and first responders
- Learn from best practices and case studies on managing airport emergencies and incidents from airports in various regions
- Exclusive interaction opportunities with leading industry personnel through an open dialogue session and networking dinners

KEY EVENTS INCLUDE:

- World Civil Aviation Fire Chiefs Meeting (by-invitation only)
- Keynote Address by Mr John Trew, Founding Chairman, IAFPA
- Open Dialogue with Fire Chiefs: Advancing Airport Emergency Responses in Today's Environment

CONFERENCE TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Job fitness assessment for fire-fighters
- Competency-based training assessment
- Fire-fighting Foams for safe airport operations
- Safety and standards for aerodromes, terminals and passengers
- Fire emergencies case studies that look into aircraft accidents, terminal building fires, crisis management, airport security and incident management
